House

WASHINGTON May 14

[illegible] He had argued it up [illegible] but had voted for it [illegible] and to secure the passage of the bill and the passage resulting, Orth was smitten [illegible] had not Orth [illegible] as a member of the foreign affairs committee [illegible] he would not have spoken He then [illegible] He explained that the Chicago Times had published an uncorrected report [illegible] a misunderstanding between the publishers of the [illegible] This published report [illegible] some [illegible] Orth which he [illegible] the authentic report omitted He characterized Orth's [illegible] attorney as a violation of the revised statutes [illegible] disgrace to civilization and a blow [illegible] country whether his record [illegible]

Orth replied with great bitterness [illegible] of personal and political malignity and enmity He declared that he would at a future time make certain exposures and Springer dared him to make them now

The house then went into committee on the legislative appropriation bill the pending amendment being Hooker's for the payment of persons informing on violators of the internal revenue law

Davis of North Carolina said that such informers were used for political purposes

Kelley said that by striking at the laws which repressed illicit stills the democrats furnished the republicans with ammunition which would more than counterbalance local popularity among moonshiners which they would gain The amendment was rejected and the committee rose recess till evening

PRESIDENTIAL PROSPECTS

Of the Delegates to Chicago

NEW YORK May 14—The Tribune's table gives the candidates up to the present time the following votes Grant 276 Blaine 2[illegible] Sherman 96 Edmunds 34 Washburne 13 Necessary for choice, 379 To be still elected 168

The "Herald's" Figures

NEW YORK May 14—The Herald publishes the latest tables of delegates to Chicago as follows Grant 265 Blaine 243 Sherman 97 Edmunds 32 Washburne 14 and adds It is calculated on the best obtainable authority that from nine conventions that are yet to be held the anti third term candidates will receive a majority of at least ten delegates This would be a majority opposed to the ex president of 134 and would render impossible his nomination on the first ballot

Grant Gains in Illinois

CHICAGO May 14—Six county conventions have added twenty four delegates to Grant

Nebraska

HAVANA May 14—The desire for a commercial treaty between Cuba and the United States is daily becoming more pronounced The president of the board of commerce has issued a circular advising merchants to use all means at their disposal to promote the conclusion of a treaty

An Opinion of Our Supreme Court

A writer in the Standard says nobody believes that Frank Pixley (of the San Francisco Argonaut) ever made such a criticism upon a decision of our supreme court as has been attributed to him To set this matter at rest we quote from the Argonaut of Oct 18

There is an explanation due from the supreme court of Oregon to the American bar for its decision in the case of James L Walker and Henry [illegible] Cold man and wife and Joseph Teal and wife We cannot read the decision [illegible] the conclusion that fundamental principles of law have been violated and that the plaintiffs have been robbed of their money Oregon had better raise the amount involved by popular subscription and refund it than that [illegible] a wrong should go unredressed We decline making such comment as we fear is deserved in this case from a personal respect we have entertained for the court and [illegible] time its integrity has so far [illegible] been called in question

A MISSING PLANK

Death from Canned Corn

SAN FRANCISCO May 14—Mrs Erickson [illegible] the third member of the same family who [illegible] within a few days [illegible] son and daughter [illegible] were ill [illegible] by eating canned corn It seems that some of the [illegible] was taken home [illegible] fatal results

Further Details

[illegible] agent of the railroad company who accompanied U S Marshal Poole [illegible] to Sanford states to-day that after the shooting had taken place the settlers who had [illegible] fallen [illegible] distance [illegible] with his [illegible] Nearly [illegible] of the settlers coming up to him said This is more than we bargained for [illegible] Crow why did you commence firing We did not, and the settler you began it yourself Crow then moved away and the settlers having rallied, followed him up The he was shot down Railroad authorities are now in consultation as to their next move but no conclusion has as yet been reached They will be guided strictly by the law in the case

The Kallochs and the Church

SAN FRANCISCO May 14—The Baptist state convention in session at Sacramento tabled the resolutions expressing condemnation of the course of Revs I S and I M Kalloch and giving notice that preliminary steps would be taken for a hearing between the aggrieved church and the Metropolitan church of which the Kallochs are pastors by a vote of 46 to 35 after a sharp debate

THE TULARE COUNTY TRAGEDY.

The People Stand on their Rights

Death of Another of the Wounded—Appeal of the Leaguers to the Government

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

SANFORD May 14—No evidence was taken to-day before the coroner's jury it having been thought best to adjourn the inquest till the 24th inst until the excitement subsides A further reason was that evidence of parties not here was wanted and it could not be secured for some days

At a citizens and leaguers meeting this forenoon several speeches were made and resolutions adopted The principal speaker was Major T J McQuiddy an influential officer of the settlers league who advised a legal and conservative course The following resolutions were then unanimously adopted

It is the sense of this people that there is not now nor has there ever been any danger in the running of trains or forwarding of mails by this road that it is considered clearly a breach of contract with the United States government of the part of railroad authorities in not delivering mails at this time

The settlers league have transmitted the following message to Washington

To the Secretary of the United States Senate The journals of the senate and house will show that we have done all in our power for the investigation of our case. Seven citizens have been murdered We pray that our case may be heard We hold the Southern Pacific Railroad Co responsible for their blood and for any future trouble which may occur in the Mussel Slough country. Answer if received

J J Doyle T J McQuiddy, J W Patterson A Tyner Settlers Committee

The settlers appear jubilant over the fact that the government will not use armed force to enforce civil processes and that the fight is to be left to the railroad and settlers alone Telegraphic and railroad communications have been resumed The first train arrived in Hanford at 5 o'clock this afternoon and nearly the whole male portion of the town was at the depot to meet it

SAN FRANCISCO May 14—The victims of the Hanford tragedy were buried yesterday All business was suspended and the whole populace attended the obsequies An autopsy has been made on the body of Hart but no evidence has yet been taken by the coroner A citizens committee has been appointed consisting of settlers residing on lands not within the railroad grant and unconnected with the league to endeavor to effect a compromise with the railroad company The league are guarding railroad property to prevent any depredations by irresponsible individuals and seem determined to permit the commission of no overt act but will continue to hold their homes at any cost

The Grounds of Resistance.

The Bulletin this evening publishes a copy of a written document which a Hanford settler presented Marshal Poole immediately after the shooting occurred It premises that settlers are not able to present their cases so quickly as their opponents can complete process for ejectment and closes as follows Three cases have been appealed to the United States supreme court and we are determined to submit to no ejectment until said cases are decided We present the following facts

First—These lands were never granted to the Southern Pacific railroad company

Second—We have certain equities that must be respected and shall be respected

Third—The patents they hold to our lands were acquired by misrepresentation and fraud and we as Americans citizens cannot and will not respect them without investigation by our government

Fourth—The Southern Pacific railroad company have not complied with their contract both with our people and with our government and there are for these several reasons we are in duty bound to ask you to d[illegible]

THE COMING POLITICAL CONTEST

A Discourse Delivered in the Unitarian Church Portland by Rev T L Eliot May 9th

[illegible] to the field of our [illegible] [illegible] to the political [illegible] real citizens [illegible] of passion which [illegible] to blindness [illegible] to gain the [illegible] that you may [illegible] your own eyes [illegible] to give an [illegible] understanding of [illegible] false and to urge upon [illegible] as patriotic [illegible] incomprehensible views and distorted [illegible] of events and times I seek to [illegible] and intelligence before the din and dust of [illegible] I wish especially that the young [illegible] the political contest [illegible] serve of moral purpose intelligence and faith [illegible] draw upon in these coming days when passion and the desire of success will offer to carry our heads where our feet ought to be and will put judgment at the mercy of heated feeling

EVILS OF PARTY HEAT

And the first word that occurs to me [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the intemperance of party attack and defence Make up your mind young men to hear charges and countercharges in number and weight sufficient to sink forever the pretensions of any and every party and party man that shall raise a head [illegible] wonder is no less that chapter and verse will be given for every statement and that the alleged truths are generally wrung from most unwilling witnesses or vouched for by as many enthusiastic names as ever shoved forward a patent medicine or a petition to spend some one else's money to their own good

It would be wholesome reading for us all at this time to go to the newspaper offices and look over the files of a month or two before the last general election I think we should find many an indifferent citizen or measure of state dressed out in such truculent war paint as not to be recognized by the traditional warmest friend Such dire and vague portents you shall have flying about that nothing less than anarchy or despotism will satisfy in the event. If the enemy is not stayed in his mad career America will be no more. If you can trust the virtuous editor of the campaign document you shall happen to pick up the political enemy has scarcely a redeeming trait his followers are reduced to the uncomfortable dilemma of being knaves or fools his measures are suicidal his motives are impugned His success will mean the triumph of every political crime and his defeat will mean the final planting of the star of justice in the sky of freedom

All this and more you shall also read—with the names changed—in the opposition files. I am told that intelligent foreigners are amazed that with such abuse and heat our streets do not run in blood on every election day We smile perhaps at the changed tone when all is over the sudden moderation that comes with victory and the sense of responsibility the crumbs of comfort and regret [illegible] of the defeated Yet another election repeats the spectacle and what requires our serious attention is the atmosphere of insincerity and self deception which it never fails to bring There are just so many votes to be gained just so many immature minds to be played upon as if there were no past It is necessary to discount this constant intemperance of speech for the injury it does is far reaching nor do the effects of it end with the balloting day Such speech or careless talk [illegible] first reacts upon him who uses it Human nature is so constituted that after a while it believes even its own lies much more other people's when told often enough It is impossible to account for newspaper editors on the hypothesis that they are totally depraved or for politicians on the surmise that they have cloven feet A little study of the human mind—one's own mind for instance—will show that the resolution to see only one side, whether consciously taken or not blinds us to the other side that the determination to seize every weapon against our foe the willingness to credit every report that tells for our part reacts and produces a kind of judicial blindness The partisan hears a story for his side or against the other If it [illegible] true it ought to be, and it may be so so it is Our political friend finally is so full of his cause that he dreams things overnight and they come forth facts strong as proof of holy writ

Ministers and churches are no better when they get at odds in theology It is one of the certain evils of heated controversy that the combatants are [illegible] Another evil in this connection not often thought of I would especially warn young Americans against. The indiscriminateness of personal attack during elections is really the cloak under which unscrupulous men succeed So many charges are false that the rogues have double the chance of escape. With accusations flung fast and loose at any and everybody how easy for the really unprincipled man to claim that he is only slandered along with all good men and true in the same side! He can point to even a Washington as having been vilified and his motives called selfish On the other hand the certainty of being assailed with such charges, holds back many an upright man from what is the most honorable of all lives the service of his country

And one more evil Let a weak man enter the political arena—and sometimes his weakness betrays him thus he finds falsehoods and misrepresentations hurled at him that many people believe them and he ends by saying what is the use of virtue that I get no credit for as well accept the bribe as be believed to have accepted them As well be heartless and selfish as have no one believe in me when my motive is disinterested This is the secret of many a man's political degeneracy He was not strong enough to place character above reputation and so we tempt our public men to be unprincipled by our indiscriminate party abuse

HEAR THE OTHER SIDE.

Now the young voter I repeat must learn to discount all this and these evils He must hold a strong moral reserve of faith in veracity When he joins a party he should distinctly be jealous of his own partizanship his own easy credulousness He must be a sifter He wrongs himself if he never reads or sees but one side or looks a men and principles through only one window Our foreign guests are astonished to find politics tabooed in good society and that men of differing views forbear expressing them to each other or discussing them as if matters of common interest and when they remonstrate the answer is we Americans cannot discuss politics with an opponent without arousing ill feeling and why I ask cannot men differ in political creeds discuss the most momentous interests without quarrelling Why is except that we are each filled and stuffed with one side only and have not sifted the real issue out of the personalities and false issues raised about it Of course no political question can be discussed on the basis of assertion and denial No one is fit to talk on such themes who does not read his adversary's side even more carefully than his own [illegible] ber who does his fear must be counted small in any community Yet is not the only hope of anything [illegible] males of measures and men in such reading—and in dispassionate [illegible] between man and man I know no better word for young voters than this—Resolve to know thoroughly the other side You have as much to learn from adversaries as from friends You have more need of caution as to the merits of your own side than as to the merits of the other You must learn to [illegible] party is only a means to an end [illegible] words [illegible] party [illegible] synonymous with the [illegible] of any party [illegible] You may never forget that party allegiance is a [illegible] and that patriotic [illegible] of any party should be the inspiration of all

A TRANSITION PERIOD IN POLITICS

I pass now to a second consideration which [illegible] the present position of American politics [illegible] in America points the young citizen [illegible] form of taking a stand measurably aloof [illegible] of party [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] England in the years 1832 [illegible] and more notably [illegible] the far [illegible] before the [illegible]

[illegible] more [illegible] when [illegible] traditions and each at heart [illegible] from the limbs [illegible] advantage [illegible] of much [illegible] do not [illegible] But there are new issues [illegible] who having [illegible] help me to [illegible] I dare not wait upon [illegible] Compromises and patches here and there soon thrown out, a phrase stuck in such is the [illegible] younger party [illegible] right angles [illegible] country to day

The general election which we approach [illegible] will be treated [illegible] capital out of [illegible] by avoiding or [illegible] rank at [illegible] If I am [illegible] of young [illegible] It is a time [illegible] for the kind of thought that cleaves to the center of things a time of preparation to meet coming events [illegible] independence of any party by which I have to say I do not mean indifferent political duties nor necessarily complete isolation [illegible] expectancy and absolute repudiation of moral misalliances The young voter can stand in such an attitude refusing his fire and enthusiasm to worn out battle cries. He can by such an attitude hasten the clearing of the political atmosphere and he will be ready to discern at the earliest day that word of life and sincerity which is destined to fill the land

THE CIVIL SERVICE.

I may say in the third place to young Americans Use this transition period or waiting for reinforcing your faith in the moral idea underlying all political movement Use it as a time for strengthening your convictions as to the dignity and worth of political service whether in the rank and file or as commissioned and responsible officer Perhaps the living issue to be raised is just this—the redemption of civil service from the spoils of party—and from the evil tradition which makes that service the party spoils We look to young America to break this ill omened tradition and so measurably restore political life and influence to purity or motive We look to young America to force the tradition by which politics are deliberately surrendered to those whose personal interest may run counter to their civil duty by which we gibe and sneer but do nothing to resist the machinery of corruption Employ this transition period also to inform yourselves well in the history of your country—especially its political history It is one of the encouraging signs of the times that within four or five years more convenient books of information upon these themes have been compiled than in a hundred years before The history of parties and political movements in England—the country nearest to our own in its institutions and race is also fruitful of interest to every American citizen It is apparent that in our schools that increased attention is being given to such branches of political science and principles as can be imparted with advantage in early years. An independent press is also rising at all the great centers of population which when it is free in fact as well as in name is wielding immense influence in the direction of intelligence and moral force If such work is faithfully done we may hope for fresh impulses of patriotism and for sincere reforms in the policies and the instruments of national life. The chief thing in the life of parties is the temper and the method of action In proportion as we sink secondary motives will be the living force of moral purpose In the degree that we learn to scorn doubtful means will be the efficiency of pure and honorable means. And lastly in the degree that living issues are livingly met we may be sure that our country is always safe in whosoever hands her fortunes are cast We need fear nothing from the shock of battling opinions and moral forces The chief thing Young America has to fear is with its traditions of indifferentism sneers at politics, despairings of the republic which we so often are compelled to listen to No party, however much in error can do us a tithe of the harm that such disrespect and loss of faith do and I urge you to set him down who speaks in this tone as no true man as one who only writes himself faithless to the common trust.

How blest of Heaven is our smiling land! See how to day as never before the oppressed and sad masses of Europe are flocking to our shores. The seaports are besieged by them They are seized with homesickness for this Canaan of milk and honey where earth and man are hospitable where no ghosts of famine and war stalk about where there is none to molest and make afraid! Oh may our young citizens see in our institutions a sacred heritage to be guarded with their lives their fortunes and their honor May the dignity of citizenship receive as it justly demands the culture of head and the best intellectual life May the law of right become evermore supreme and the love of our country stand with the love of mother and children wife and home and next to the love of God

UNIVERSALIST STATE CONVENTION

Under date of [illegible] City May 7th J H Nos[illegible] ter secretary of the Universalist state convention sends the following

By order of the executive council the Universalist state convention has been changed from Seattle W T to Dallas Polk county, Oregon to commence on Thursday the 10th of June next

Ample arrangements will be made by Dallas parish for the accommodation of all who attend the meeting and a cordial invitation is extended to all, Arrangements will be made with railroad and river companies for half fare for delegates Those coming from the south by rail will be met at Salem on the 8th, with free hacks to be conveyed to Dallas fifteen miles west of Salem Those coming from the north will come on the west side railroad to Beery station, where they will also find conveyances in waiting for them provided they come on Wednesday the 9th It might be well for those coming by railroad to drop a line to P Jenney Dallas so that he may know how many teams to send

A Union camp meeting will be held by the M E church and M E church south, at Dixie campground beginning on the 18th day of June and continuing over two Sundays

COMBINATION IN CONVENTION

On the first ballot at Cincinnati in 1876 [illegible] had [illegible] votes which number was [illegible] on the [illegible] ballot to [illegible]. The [illegible] ballot showed [illegible] to [illegible] the [illegible] ballot [illegible] unless [illegible] could combine [illegible] would [illegible] nominated upon another ballot or two [illegible]. It was the field against Blaine [illegible] Blaine against the field. Hayes had started with but 61 votes. But on the sixth ballot he had grown to 113 being the highest of any of the seven candidates voted for on that ballot as against Blaine. The panic that ensued among the opponents of Blaine arising from the manifest fact that he would be nominated unless a combination were quickly effected most of them went to Hayes chiefly because he had obtained the highest number on the preceding ballot and the chance for successful combination on him was considered better than upon any other candidate. On the seventh ballot Hayes was nominated by a vote of 384 to 351 for Blaine and 21 for Bristow the few votes which the latter received being from states at the head of the list which voted before the combination upon Hayes had been fully agreed upon.

The contest at Chicago next month promises to be a repetition of that at Cincinnati in 1876—with a difference. Grant, if a candidate at all before the convention will be in about the same place that Blaine was in 1876. He will have more votes than any other candidate yet not enough to nominate him and the convention will open with the field against Grant. The candidate who is placed in this position never gets the nomination. Blaine's experience in 1876 was not singular nor exceptional. Seward had experienced the same thing in 1860. Douglas also met it in the democratic convention in 1860 when he was beaten for the regular nomination by withdrawal from the convention of the delegates from several southern states. The history of these events shows that all the delegates except the active supporters of the leading candidates may be expected to unite as the first necessary thing in pulling down such leading candidate. After that they will take their chances in the scramble for the winning man.

There is no probability that Grant's vote at the opening of the Chicago convention will exceed that cast for Blaine at Cincinnati at the opening of the convention of 1876—say about 300. The south is the main dependence of the partisans and the votes of the south are 276 all told. From these, known defections must be made as follows: Georgia 18 Maryland 8 Delaware 6 West Virginia 10 Mississippi 14 Tennessee 6 Texas 8 and North Carolina 10. Total 78 leaving 198 in the south for Grant provided he carries the whole of Louisiana and Alabama, states which are yet to hold their conventions. In the delegations of the northern states Grant has no ascertained strength outside of New York and Pennsylvania the former of which will give him about 50 and the latter about 30 votes or 80 in all. Add 20 scattering votes from other states, a number which from all reports would appear fully sufficient and the total is 100. Add 198 votes from the south and Grant's total strength would be 298. Should the entire vote of Illinois be added he would still be far short of the required number as it will take 378 votes to nominate.

Blaine's strength at the outset cannot yet so well be defined. It will probably be almost equal to Grant's. The danger to Blaine is that he as too prominent a candidate at the start may fall by the power of a second combination. It will be the great aim of the Grant men to bring about this result, and to effect it they will hold their forces in hand and transfer them as far as they can to Washburne or some other candidate.

—In connection with this subject the estimates of the New York Tribune and the New York Herald received since the foregoing was written and published in our telegraphic columns will be found worthy of special notice. The figures demonstrate that Gen Grant's nomination will be impossible on the first ballot and altogether impossible in any event.

In England there has been no such absurd advance in the price of iron as that which has been witnessed in the United States and which experience has now fully shown cannot be maintained. The average price of British pig iron exported to the United States during the first three months of this year was about $17 80 per ton, against about $19 20 for the corresponding period last year. The average price of tin per ton was $112 20 during the first three months of this year, against $84 80 during the corresponding period last year. There was a like decline in the average prices of other kinds of iron. This decline in the British prices of iron in the face of the great advance in this country is remarkable and it goes far toward explaining why our iron men have lately found it necessary to reduce their prices. The slackening of demand has of course had something to do with it, but the decline in England has undoubtedly contributed its share toward producing the decline here.

The general manager of the Northern Pacific eastern division reports everything in satisfactory operation on that part of the road. Rails are now being laid toward the Yellowstone at the rate of one mile and a fourth a day. The chief engineer has returned to Bismarck from the Little Missouri and reports that the contractors have accomplished more in the bad lands during the winter than he had expected to find. He has under consideration the question of a permanent crossing of the river at Bismarck, and has had surveys of the river approaches made and will go to New York to submit the matter of bridge or tunnel to the board of directors. The indications are that the proposition for a tunnel will receive favorable consideration.

A tourist writing from Pompeii says: The museum and ruins of Pompeii hold an indescribable charm for the lover of history and as the tourist walks slowly through the deserted streets gazing upon the public buildings and private dwellings that Bulwer has invested with such subtle attractions and beauties it is hard to realize that we are in the close of the greatest century of the world, that chariots are superseded by the locomotive that [illegible] are distanced by telegraph and telephone and that the [illegible] represent [illegible] the present would have been practicable 1,800 years ago.

Baltimore and Philadelphia are [illegible] from the foregoing [illegible] New York. The [illegible] are considering a plan to abolish [illegible] charges and [illegible] foreign [illegible] other ports under the prompt [illegible] free [illegible] and other advantages which New York is unable to afford. It behooves the [illegible] beware of [illegible] as they undoubtedly are by [illegible] powerful railroad influence.

A note from Judge [illegible] that he has not written anything for [illegible] paper or suggested anything [illegible] appeared [illegible] since his appointment [illegible] to be better [illegible] statement is presented [illegible] which was [illegible] freely accepted [illegible].

Some [illegible] Oregon think we pay our governor [illegible] Michigan the people are more economical still. They think $1000 salary enough for their governor and at the recent election voted down a constitutional amendment trebling it.

Correspondence recently published shows that President Hayes last March tendered the governorship of Washington territory to Gen Kilpatrick who declined it.

Republicans of Illinois Minnesota and Nebraska will hold their state conventions on the 19th May—that is on Wednesday next.

to Washington St

The Daily Oregonian.

SATURDAY MORNING MAY 1 188

CITY.

RESIGNATION—APPOINTMENT.—A considerable time ago Mr S G Reed tendered his resignation as vice-president of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company his private business needing his whole attention. In fact he accepted the position reluctantly and chiefly to aid in effecting the organization of the company under the new arrangement. Though strongly urged to remain he decided to retire and Mr T F Oakes formerly of the Kansas Pacific railroad has been appointed to succeed him. Mr Oakes is expected to arrive about the middle of July. Besides being the vice president of the company he will act as general manager here thus filling the position which Mr Reed now holds. The latter will ho d the position till Mr Oakes arrives and then will devote himself to the management of his large property which requires his constant attention.

GERMAN CARP.—Capt John Harlow some time ago sent to California for a number of German carp with which he proposed to stock a pond on his ranch which is situated near Sandy about miles from Portland. Thirty five of the fish arrived on the steamer Elder and will be on exhibition to day at W S Failing's fish market at Central Market. These fish are genuine German carp and are perfect beauties. Some of them are nearly two years old and the largest are about six inches long. Monday Capt. Harlow will take these fish over to Trout Dale and stock one of his ponds. All who desire to see the fish can do so by calling to day at the market.

SPIRITUALISM EXPOSED. Monday Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week Mr John M Sunok will give a series of performances at Masonic hall in which he professes to make a thorough exposure of spiritualism. He claims to be able to show how spiritualists show the mysteries of death unveiled by pretended communications from the dead. He will expose the cabinet materialization seance also the physical manifestations of such mediums as the Davenport Bros, Charles H Foster Dr Slade J V Mansfield Maud E Lord Mrs. Stewart Mrs Foy Mrs Lennatt and Mr and Mrs Nelson Holmes of the Katie King Notoriety.

MASQUERADE BALL.—A chief feature of the excursion to Victoria will be a grand masquerade ball at the skating rink given in aid of the Royal Hospital by the Order of Shepherds. Rear Admiral Stirling and officers of the fleet will attend. To judge from the preparations being made there it will exceed anything of a like nature ever before attempted in Victoria. By an ingenious arrangement of the tickets it will be next to an impossibility for objectionable persons to gain admittance to the floor. The plan could be profitably imitated by the managers of balls in this city. We return thanks for tickets sent us.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mrs C M Kester a very estimable lady who has long resided in Oregon City died very suddenly at her home on Thursday. Up to the time of her death she had been in good health and was performing the usual household duties. Having occasion to step into the woodshed to get some fuel Mrs Kester fell, and soon after died without uttering a word. Paralysis of the heart is the attributed cause of death. Her funeral will take place to-day at 10 A M from the Baptist church at Oregon City.

ENTERTAINMENT AND SOCIABLE.—The Young People's Association of the First Baptist church propose giving a literary and social entertainment on Tuesday evening May 14th. The programme will consist of vocal and instrumental music and readings and recitations by the best talent of the city. We are pleased to hear from the Young People again in this line as their entertainments last season were very successful we can but expect a splendid social and literary treat on this occasion.

WEEKLY OREGONIAN.—This unsurpassed publication is just out and can be had at the business office for the small sum of 10 cents per copy. The current number is one of unusual interest—just such a paper as every family in the country should desire. This very excellent family journal will be sent to any address for $2 per year. No one can afford to do without it.

BOATS PURCHASED. The Oregonian Railway Company limited has purchased the steamers City of Salem and Ohio and we understand is negotiating for the purchase of the steamer City of Quincy. These boats will be used by the railway company in conveying railroad materials up to Ross's ferry on the Willamette five miles above Champoeg and also to Dayton.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Gotlieb D L Wagner of Tama City Iowa writes and desires to learn of the whereabouts of his brother A. N F Wagner from whom he has received no tidings for nearly 15 years. He is supposed to be in Oregon somewhere. Any information left with Mr James A Smith county clerk will be very thankfully received.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL.—George Collins who has been convicted of the crime of murder in the second degree—for the killing of Clark Hamilton—was to have been sentenced Wednesday morning by Judge Bellinger but the time in which to file a motion for a new trial was extended until this (Saturday) morning.

ANOTHER BUILDING.—Mr Asa Harker, who owns a lot on First street between Yamhill and Taylor contemplates erecting a three story brick business building the present season. The plans have already been prepared, and the work is soon to follow.

BOUND FOR PORTLAND.—The City of Madrid 1191 tons register is on the way to this port with cargo for R. C Janion & Co. and the Oberon 1181 tons register will leave Liverpool during the current month with cargo for the same firm.

POLITICAL SPEAKING.—Mr Joseph Simon received a dispatch from Lafayette last night which stated that Hon M C George spoke there yesterday afternoon to a very large and enthusiastic crowd.

MRS MCLENNAN'S BENEFIT.

Mrs. Kate McLennan has reason to feel complimented by the large and fashionable audience present last evening at New Market on the occasion of the benefit tendered that lady.

The most attractive feature of the evening was the "Baby Pinafore." The principal characters of the opera were entrusted to juvenile hands the individuals ranging in years from 2 to 12. The chorus was also composed of little girls and boys. The opera had been most rigorously pruned cut down and simplified only enough remaining of the score and dialogue to give an imperfectly connected plot. Through the lack of careful rehearsal was very uneven—at times almost painfully so. Between the orchestra and the singers there were at no time any sympathy and still less tempo. But to criticise the opera and the manner in which it was rendered would be manifestly unjust. Such extreme juvenile praise efforts—especially by perfect amateurs—deserve exemption from criticism taking everything into consideration it was a decided remarkably well the most prominent characters acting and singing well.

Little Daisy who personated Josephine carried off in good style and won an admiration the honors of the evening. Although she did not sing a note the little Miss repeated the words with such accuracy and precision that she captured the audience and during the evening several floral tributes were bestowed on the diminutive Josephine. The part of the captain was sustained excellently by Miss Maggie Reevey who acted her part with ease and sung the score correctly. Miss Frankie Reeves personated Sir Joseph very cleverly. Her acting was natural and easy and singing in the main correct. Miss Carrie Abrahams as Ralph deserves more than passing mention. She has a very sweet voice and rendered the music with good effect. Too much praise cannot be bestowed on Miss Belle Young who assumed the part of Little Buttercup. She dressed, sung and acted the character well for one of her age. Hebe was personated by Miss Celia Abrahams very neatly. The Dick Deadeye by little Willie Rives was well sustained. Little Sydney Prager acted and sung the part of the Boatswain splendidly for one so very young. The Midship Mite by La Petite Lattie (only two years old) was too cunning and elicited roars of laughter. The other subordinate characters were all passably well sustained. Overlooking the many defects the audience entered into the real true spirit and heartily enjoyed the performance.

MATINEE.—In response to a generally expressed desire on the part of the public Juvenile Pinafore will be repeated this afternoon. Bring out the little folks and give them a chance to have a good laugh. Reserved seats can be had at Morse's without extra charge.

THE GRUTLI-VEREIN.

ITS ORIGINAL NAME AND PURPOSE ETC

The beautiful valleys of ancient Helvetia many centuries ago were populated by a vigorous, liberty loving population of shepherds or herdsmen who did not then enjoy the benefit of a free government as they do now but to the contrary were oppressed by one of the most tyrannical dynasties—the house of Hapsburg (Austria.)

This cruel and steadily growing despotism could at length no longer be endured by a liberty loving and naturally independent race like the Switzers and on the 7th November 1307 at the banks of the Vierwaldstaedtersee in a meadow called the Gruetli the three conspirators and founders of the oldest now existing republic of the world Werner Stauffacher Arnold von Winkelried and Melchthal met in secret conclave concealed by dense and dark forests in the rear in the stillness of midnight and sealed their friendship by a solemn oath not to rest until they had liberated their unfortunate country from the tyrannous oppression of Austria. Their device was One for all and all for one. As a remembrance of this the first Grutli Verein you will now find in almost every part of the world wherever there exists a dozen or more Switzers a society called the Grutli Verein. Their object is to aid each other and uphold a patriotic spirit of true republicanism and to meet every Switzer far from his fatherland as a friend and brother. They aid the sick members and have their dramatic Turn and Singing Sections their section of Sharpshooters etc.

The scattered societies are united by a Bezirk like the Turners and two different Bezirks by a union called the Grutli Bund.

The North American Grutli Bund consists of 43 societies or Vereins and counts about 2000 members.

Report of State Fair Committee on Wm. Scheffler's Wines and Brandy.

To the Board of Managers of the Oregon State Fair for the year 1879—DEAR SIRS: Your committee appointed to report on the exhibit of wines and brandies do respectfully report that they have thoroughly examined and tested the PORT SHERRY and AMBER WINES put on exhibition by Mr Wm Scheffler of St Helena Napa county Cal and that we have called in experts in aid of our judgment and would feel that we were doing Mr Scheffler great injustice did we simply report an exhibit of fine wines. The committee feel that they should go much further and say we find an exhibit of really very superior wines which we feel justified in recommending to the confidence of all who have need of fine wines. We have every reason to believe them pure and we can say for ourselves that they are delicious in their flavor.

We have also tested Mr Scheffler's SANITARY (VACUUM DISTILLED) GRAPE BRANDY and pronounced by connoisseurs through out our land as being wonderfully smooth and invigorating—and the fact that by the new process of distilling adopted by Mr Scheffler the brandy is freed from the fusil oils is a desideratum never before attained. We believe and should and doubtless will make Mr Scheffler the leading brandy manufacturer on this coast. We would recommend to all druggists a trial of this brandy and the wines. And your committee would recommend the award of the society's diploma for SUPERIOR BRANDY AND WINES.

The breakdown of the mail steamer between Seattle and Port Town end a few days ago was not as serious as was at first anticipated. The injuries were repaired and she is now in service having missed but one trip.

M A S Abernethy who is employed in the Northern Pacific office in this city as book keeper and treasurer recently left on a visiting tour to San Francisco. He took passage on the State of California which left Portland on Thursday.

The Puyallup Stave and Excelsior manufactory has ceased the making of loose barrels but is still manufacturing tight barrels and excelsior. The company now employs about a dozen men. The excelsior is shipped to Portland and San Francisco furniture establishments.

Your correspondent is informed that the indications are that the Puyallup farmer will raise a larger crop of hops the present year than has ever before been raised in one season. The hop vines in some instances have grown nearly six feet up the poles. The informant says that the farmers are hopeful for good prices and in consequence of which they have increased the acreage quite materially and will cultivate their fields more thoroughly than last year.

FOR THE LADIES.

Draperies for the fronts of dress spring suits are shirred to form either single or double paniers or they are placed to fall down over the hips with clusters of shirring.

The prettiest button of the season is a very pearl coated with silver by some new process and the play of color through the film of metal is exceedingly handsome.

The light wood shades used this spring are very effective for throwing up the colors of embroidery and women who have the time and taste for such things can have beautiful costumes with a little labor.

The latest novelties in silk hose are the beaded styles which come in various shades and closely resemble the richest beadwork. Others are embroidered in the most exquisite colors with sprays of flowers either at the side or over the instep.

New designs for dresses show a little more width in the skirt and a tendency to a more ample effect. Costumes for the street are less trimmed than last year and less closely draped giving more freedom to the figure. The skirts just escape the ground and are somewhat longer than the walking skirts of the winter.

Dresses for tennis are made of striped percale and have a broad scarf twisted round the hips and looped long at the back. The bodice is tight fitting without trimming except at the throat and wrists. The skirt is made with a deep kilt plaiting or with three ruffles.

SAN FRANCISCO FREIGHTS AND MARKETS.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—There has been a gratifying improvement in the freight market during the past week, and several vessels have been chartered at quite an advance over rates previously current. The advance is due to the scarcity of ships on spot and to arrive, and to improvement in the English market. It is evident that for the balance of the season freights will maintain this firm position with a strong probability of considerably higher rates being established. Disengaged tonnage in port aggregates but 9700 tons, which is held at about £3 for Cork for orders; while this rate is far above the price shippers are willing to pay, it is a figure toward which the market is gradually moving. Last week £2 10s for orders was considered fully five shillings above the market, while since then even higher rates have been obtained. There is some inquiry for ships to load coal at the north for this port, but $3, the present asking price, is above the views of charterers. Crop prospects if anything are more brilliant than at the last review, while tonnage bound here remains almost stationary, two favorable indications of high freights. Next season's tonnage list will, however, be considerably increased during the next thirty days. The latest charter reported is the British bark Springwood, 990 tons, wheat to Cork, U. K., £2 12s 6d.

Wheat—The market exhibited a better tone today, without any improvement in values. Both shippers and millers evinced more interest, which fact gave encouragement to holders. Export transactions are said to be made at a range of $1 45@1 55, though we have not been furnished with details. Holders of choice parcels of milling are reported to be stiff in their views. Advices from Liverpool tend to improve confidence, the demand being quite active at an improving price.

Onions—Quiet; a tumble has been experienced within two days; recent consignments of new California have been closed out at $1; old are quotable at $2@2 25.

Poultry—The market continues to improve; roosters, $4 50@5 for old and $8@9 50 for young; hens, $6@6 50.

Hides and Skins—The drop in leather in eastern markets causes buyers to be a little more cautious. Local dealers are paying the following cash rates for consignments: Dry hides, usual selection, 18c; culls, one-third less, and Mexican hides, 10c less; dry kip and calf, 18c.

NEW YORK FREIGHTS AND MARKETS.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK, May 14.—There is no improvement to note in the freight market via Cape Horn, and the outlook is anything but promising, as shippers will not purchase while prices of most all classes of merchandise are on the downward track, hence any improvement in business by this route cannot be expected until there is a general improvement in markets. In the meanwhile vessels on berth load very slowly, especially as there is a scarcity of dead weight. Rates are irregular. There is some show of steadiness, but the desire to get hold of any offerings leads agents to make concessions.

Overland freights are fairly active, but the movement is mainly made up of small shipments, although in new specialties shipments are large. The movement during the past week amounted to 3329 pkgs.

Markets are generally quiet. Breadstuffs are higher on lighter supply of spot stock available for shipment, and there is a good shipping demand.

Wheat—Is higher and firm.
Provisions—Firm and more active.
Pork—$11 20@11 50.
Rio coffee—Dull at ¼c lower.
Refined sugars—Moderate demand and easier.
Hides—Unchanged.
Turpentine—Dull at 35¼@36c.

Liverpool Grain Market.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

LIVERPOOL, May 14.—Breadstuffs, active; wheat, 9s 3d@10s 4d per cental for average California white, 10s@10s 5d for California club, 9s 10d@10s 6d for red winter. Receipts of wheat for the past three days, 72,000 centals including 65,000 American.

London Wool Sales.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

LONDON, May 14.—At to-day's wool sale about 10,000 bales were disposed of, chiefly Sydney, Victorian and New Zealand. The tone was quieter, and a good many lots were bought, chiefly greasy, demand from France having slackened.

Chicago Wheat Market.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

CHICAGO, May 14.—Wheat—Steady; $1 17⅞ cash; $1 13 for June delivery; $1 09¾ for July.

Money and Stocks.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK, May 14.—Money 3@5; governments quiet, firm; stocks closed strong, Western Union, 100; Erie, 36⅞.

Gold and Stock Company's Reports.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.

Receipts—2500 qr sacks flour, 45,000 ctls wheat, including cargo of the British ship Cannochone, 225 ctls oats, 1800 sacks potatoes, 7500 doz eggs.

Charters—Several ships are reported chartered to arrive for July and August loading at 57s 6d.

Butter—California choice to extra choice; the market is active with upward tendency.

Eggs—The market is quiet, with prices against sellers; large lots of eastern eggs due.

Wool—The market is very quiet; buyers' views are below sellers', claiming that eastern prices do not justify present rates.

Oranges—Scarce; best, $30.
Lemons—California, scarce at $20.
Limes—California, easy at $5.
Spring Vegetables—Scarce and dearer; cabbage, cheaper; onions, cheaper, with tendency to lower rates.
Rice—China, steady.
Oats—Feed, firm.
Potatoes—Steady at 50@90c as to kind and quality, the latter for fancy Humboldt and kidney.
Wheat—Market unfavorably affected by rise in freights, which quite offsets the better European market.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

CHICAGO, May 14.

Wheat—$1 13¼ June.
Pork—$10 35 June.
Short Ribs—$6 40.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

NEW YORK, May 14.

Wheat—Strong at $1 25@1 30.
Flour and Wool—Dull.

Beerbohm.

LONDON, May 14.—Floating cargoes wheat active and higher. Cargoes on passage strong. Wheat and corn in Mark Lane per 480 lbs off coast 47s 6d. Red winter, 52s 6d; average Chicago for shipment present or following month, 45s@46s per 480 lbs. English and French country markets generally dearer. Spot wheat and corn in Liverpool improving.

Produce Receipts.

Produce receipts at Portland for the 24 hours ending at noon to day:

King of the Blood.

Cures all Scrofulous affections and disorders resulting from impurity of the blood. It is needless to specify all, as the sufferer can usually perceive their cause; but Salt Rheum, Pimples, Ulcers, Tumors, Goitre, Swellings, &c., are the most common, as well as many affections of the Heart, Head, Liver and Stomach.

SCROFULA.

Wonderful Cure of Blindness.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO.: For the benefit of all troubled with Scrofula or Impure Blood in their systems, I hereby recommend King of the Blood. I have been troubled with Scrofula for the past ten years, which so affected my eyes that I was completely blind for six months. I was recommended to try King of the Blood, which has proved a great blessing to me, as it has completely cured me. I cheerfully recommend it to all troubled as I have been.

Yours truly,

THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. MCLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES.

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of disease of the generative organs or private disease.

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the

FOLLIES OF YOUTH,

Such as SPERMATORRHEA, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring either directly or indirectly from some derangement of the sexual system and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to run until their constitutions become corrupted, their organizations broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome ... to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

Lost manhood perfectly restored.

Catarrh, Bronchitis, Throat Diseases, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint and all diseases of the Eye and Ear, Stomach and Bladder, he can cure without fail.

Consultation free; and a list of printed questions sent to those living at a distance who cannot consult him personally. Enclose postage stamp for list.
